WE HAVE had the pleasure of receiving a visit, this morning, from Mr. Alex. S. Daggett, Phr. D., U. S. Food & Drug Inspector, Dept. of Agriculture. While here, he stated to the management of this company, that our local plant was as clean, or cleaner, than any plant of similar kind, that he had seen in many a day.

A statement of this kind, coming from the source from which it came, naturally makes us feel pretty good, and we should like to have you call and pass your opinion.

If you are not using our Sunshine brand of butter, do you know the sanitary conditions in the plant of the concern whose goods you are using. Use Sunshine Butter and get a product which you know is absolutely sanitary.

BODY OF MRS. KLEIN TO

BE TAKEN EAST TONIGHT

On the Santa Fe train leaving for the east at 7:40 o'clock this evening Fire Chief Jacob Klein will take the body of his wife, who died yesterday, to St. Louis for burial. The body will lie in state this afternoon at Strong Bros' chapel from 2 until 6 o'clock.Among the flowers that heaped the casket as it lay in the chapel this afternoon were wreaths from the mayor and the council, from the firemen, and from City Clerk Thomas Hughes. On the way from the chapel to the station this evening the casket will be accompanied by an escort composed of the mayor and the members of the council, three members of the fire department and three members of the police department.Mrs. Klein died yesterday afternoon at 2:15 o'clock, at her home, 605 North Second street. She had been seriously ill for years, but rare courage and cheerfulness sustained her.
She came west for the benefit of her health from St. Louis eight years ago. A small daughter who accompanied her died here. She first took up her residence in El Paso and went from there to Santa Fe. She came here from Santa Fe, found the relief she sought and stayed. Mrs.
Klein's health broke in the spring of 1909. At that time Chief Klein, then assistant foreman in the St. Louis fire department, was thrown from an engine and almost killed. Anxious over his condition and the strain of vigils at his bedside wore her down, and as he began to recover from his injuries she began to fail.Mrs. Klein was born at Carlyle, Ill., but was reared in St. Louis. She was 44 years old.

ing has changed hands. Mrs. Janet

W. Martin of Taos has taken charge as manager.

Mrs. Martin said this morning that she and H. P. Robinson had taken over the store under a tentative agreement, but that she expected Mr.

Robinson would be sole owner, while she continued as manager. Both Mr.

Robinson and Mrs. Martin have wide knowledge of Indian pottery, rugs and other curios.

BIG TELESCOPE FOR USE IN CANYON OBSERVATORY

Splendid Instrument Will Bring Canyon Scenery to the Tourist for Many Miles.A new telescope, one of the most modern instruments produced by the Rochester Optical company, arrived in Albuquerque yesterday to be inspected and tested before being sent to Grand Canyon, where it is to be installed in the recently completed observatory on the canyon's rim at El Tovar hotel.Herman Schweizer, manager of the Harvey curio business, set the instrument up yesterday morning on the Indian pueblo roof when its power was instantly shown. It brought the whole Sandia range right to the eye, so that one could count with ease the branches on the big pine trees near the top of the range. The observatory, which is built right on the canyon's rim at the head of Bright Angel trail, commands a view of the canyon for many miles. The telescope will be placed in a specially designed all-glass room and will bring the scenery to the tourist for many miles up and down, across the great chasm.

FORMER SANTA FE

CONDUCTOR PROVES

POOR TRAIN ROBBER

James S. Hogue, at one time a conductor on the Santa Fe's Grand Canyon line, and well known all along the line from Albuquerque west, was shot and probably fatally injured last Monday while attempting to hold up a train out of San Francisco.

Hogue boarded the parlor car first and held up a dozen or more passengers, then made his way to the dining car and was in the act of holding up those in that car when one of the cooks realized what the highwayman was doing, seized a club, crept up be-
